BLOG

Next week is Anti-Bullying Week. As you know bullying is not tolerated at Frederick Bird, so we want to celebrate the fact that our students treat each other well. We are all aware that bullying isn't okay.

We really want to improve reading in our school and have more children read at home. We know parents are busy so we ask if they can hear us read aloud when they are cooking, cleaning and doing household jobs and sign our reading cards afterwards.

Children in Need Day is on Friday 19th November.

Please wear something spotty and donate £1.

Junior PCSO Scheme

On Monday 15th November, 10 children from year 5 will be starting their Junior PCSO training!

Their activities will range from:

- Parking patrols,
- Anti bullying projects at school
- Road safety
- Citizenship community

At the end of their training they will receive a certificate and pin badge! We hope you have lots of fun and good luck!

Clothing

Due to our current situation, it means that windows in the classrooms are opened for ventilation to keep everyone safe.

This in turn will make it colder in the rooms the children are learning in, so you may wish to put a few extra layers on your child for the school day and dress them appropriately for the weather.

Reading Corner

Listening to your child reading at home can feel scary but it really doesn't need to!

Here are Mr Spencer's top tips:

- Make it a regular thing - at least a little bit of reading at least three times a week will really help your child.
- Anyone can listen to a child read - parents, grandparents, brothers and sisters ... even a pet!
- You can do it anywhere. (Mrs Patel likes to listen to her children read while she does the dishes after dinner!)

You can ask a few questions if you like (e.g. What do you think is going to happen? How does the person feel? What did you like about the story?) but don't feel you have to - the most important thing is just that you listen!
